CORPORATE ACTRESS, MODEL,
EMCEE

DESCRIPTION

I am a reliable, responsive, and driven model, emcee, and corporate actress. Drawing from some previous stage play experiences, I now apply my script-memorization skills toward corporate training videos. I also have experience modeling in fashion shows, and emceeing events. I am most interested in corporate training videos that utilize my acting skills whilst making the corporate workplace more inclusive and diverse. I am also interested in fashion modeling to prove that petite models are just as capable and beautiful. If given the opportunity, I would love to tackle voice over work as well. I've been re-booked by multiple companies because of my professionalism and dedication to my craft. I'm ready to work with Talent Group, Inc. to expand my portfolio whilst living up to Talent Group Inc's reputation of being personable and professional.
